Scripture

Hebrews 13:1-3, 5-6, 15-16

¹Keep on loving each other as brothers. ²Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing some people have entertained angels without knowing it.

³Remember those in prison as if you were their fellow prisoners, and those who are mistreated as if you yourselves were suffering.

⁵Keep your lives free from the love of money and be content with what you have, because God has said,

"Never will I leave you;

never will I forsake you." ⁶So we say with confidence,

"The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid.

What can man do to me?"

¹⁵Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise—the fruit of lips that confess his name. ¹⁶And do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

PRAISES

"To the Congregation, I was very pleased to learn that Ada Phelps and Bob Mapstone knew my father. I found out in a telephone conversation we had not long ago. This is joyful news! I didn't know that anyone in the congregation remembered him. You don't know how happy I am! I have been praying for all of you. I set aside a time in the morning. I begin with those who are ill (those that are on the prayer list). I use the Church directory to pray for families in our church. It is a regular routine. I, in turn, accept your prayers with thankfulness. I'm doing a lot better. I feel good and my mind is free of worry. That's the way it is if you trust in Him. May the Lord bless you and be with you always. In the Lord's name, Fred James Goddard."

"A special thank you for the taping of the Sunday services for us, especially the nice youth service; they did a great job of presenting that topic." Gratefully, Ken and Ada Phelps

Colleen Guynup would like to thank her new Secret Pal for the wonderful And special gifts and for remembering her.

Please call Elaine at the Church office (682-8941) by Wed. morning w/prayer requests.
